Heartbreaking and true, Black Aperture is a collection of mostly previously published poems by Matt Rasmussen that explore the fundamental meaning, processing, relationship with, and interpretation of death. Everything he paints is a near incomplete picture, or th 'Black Aperture' is a stunning dissertation in almost complete form about the wholly human sense of absence: Rasmussen tackles the idea of loss from every avenue, and in doing so, gives a view into the own black chasm of a longing that either is, or is missing, in his own heart. The li Black Aperture lives up to the hype it has garnered. Iturndmylightoffandcried. Eye Level. Be the first to write a review.
