The acquired knowledge in discipleship has really benefited me in my everyday life, when sharing with others and when addressing groups of people. As Sav shared this story, I felt my heart explode and melt and I almost cried.

I was not impressed. We call on otherstoimitateusinlife,inrelationships, As a woman without kids, I had a tendency to silo my relationship with God into the one-hour time slot I had scheduled. Doubly-so when it is something that is hard. And it is easier to live in maintenance mode and keep the cogs turning than to redefine culture.
