Kostenlose Gallery von. As mentioned in the earlier part, the influence of the Bhagavad-Gita began to spread far and beyond Asia following its translations into English and other European languages during the latter part of 18 th century, The Bhagavad-Gita captured the attention of the western scholars, intellectuals as also that of the general-readers. He, like Gandhi, emphasized that the true message of the Gita is not violence; but, on the contrary, the futility and uselessness of violence, self-destruction; and, the harm it can bring upon whole generations.
