After a couple of days in which Lily is lost in a haze of grief, she becomes determined. Meg Mims had originally written a Gone With The Wind esque type book about the transcontinental railroad and she was told to find the story in it. He's a brawler, drinker, smoker, and classified a Double Crossing by Lily's aunt; who, along with Sir Vaughn, join Lily on her trip Double Crossing west. The plotline, whilst to some degree predictable, is well crafted, with plenty of unexpected twists and turns.
