We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to Grandmother Elsie (TREDITION CLASSICS) preservation of printed works worldwide. Imogen means "beloved child," Clementine means "merciful," Della means "noble," and Vera means "truth," all of which could have special meaning to a family. These duty-bound parents would often use the out-of-fashion name as a middle name, hoping that would be enough to make grandma happy without their child actually having to go by a dated moniker.
