The Federation and its greatest ally, the Klingon Empire, were soon engaged in a "cold war" with the Typhon Pact. Though each of the individual installments were good, they all stood mostly alone as stories that were loosely tied together within the framework of the Typhon Pact metastory.

As always, it's great to see this interesting mix of characters from different But as Starfleet rebuilds itself, some of the Pact states grow restive, concerned about their own inability to develop a quantum slipstream drive to match that of the Federation. The story also had its share of clever twists and turns, though some plot twists will be more obvious than .
