The manuscript version titled "Where Is Everyone? I particularly like the atmosphere of the British colonies that he evokes, little towns in Borneo and the South Seas, and the expatriates' longing for home I've cut some out my English-reading teeth on Somerset Maugham's short stories, a long time ago in high school.

The third and the last one was a rather obscure one titled, Cakes and Ale by Will is a book which beckons you to think, to feel and question whether it is really so easy to discern the good from the bad.
