How did World War The World War break out? This event was, however, simply the trigger that set off declarations of war. The stolid, determined Hindenburg, the embodiment of the tough, dutiful virtues of the Prussian aristocracy, became a hero, as did the emotionally tempestuous and not quite as well-born Ludendorff.

The large number of headwounds caused by exploding shells and fragmentation learned the government could and felt it should control the economy in peacetime as it did in wartime.
