LouiseRichardsonbarelyacknowledgedthetwowomenenteringtheroom.Fox, Education : M. Fox creates some lively snapshots of the types of people who are involved in various aspects of a criminal investigation, from the impatient, sharp-tongued copper to the self-important psychologist, from the studious forensic pathologist to the brash, publicity-seeking defence lawyer. When two new victims are stabbed to death, suspicion immediately falls on Geoffrey Willard, recently released from twenty years in prison for the vicious rape and murder of a teenage girl.
