Twig's thoughts quickly bounce around on if she likes it there or hates it there I'm disappointed, and still debating whether I'll give the second book a slot on my reading list. Twig later finds out the truth about the boy, the unicorn masquerading as a horse, and so much. I understand Twig's initial standoffishness, it was fun watching her grow into a more likable characters as the story unfolded. Search within shop. Even unicorns? In care and may be looking for a character that shows incredible strength after living through some traumatic events.
