How well do you receive money? Jul 30, Financially Savvy that sounds so good.

Pages are intact and not marred by notes or highlighting. From her days as a self-employed student to now running a financial training company, Susan Hayes has always approached the business of making money in a practical can-do way. How many times have you said to yourself, 'This is the year when I finally get to grips with my finances'? Okay, folks, do you want to turn those fat and flabby expenses into a well-toned budget?

Read most recent letters to the editor. Group them by category in a spreadsheet you can download the one I use myself at. And when it's not the best of times, it can seem impossible.
